

RAILROADS TO SPEND OVER BILLION NEXT YEAR

WINTER PITCHES TENTS THROUGH MIDWEST TODAY

Sends Soldiers, Armed With Icicle Bayonets Into Dixie

By The Associated Press.
Unseasonal snow and cold, sweeping down from the northwest, attacked the middle west, the east and the south last night and today, causing 14 known deaths.

Temperatures went as low as 16 degrees below zero in Thief River Falls, Minn., and the snow piled up 19 inches deep at Dunkirk, N. Y. As far south as Alabama and Louisiana the white blanket covered the land.

Four persons were killed at Erie, Pa., when a New York Central passenger train, 45 minutes late, struck two automobiles in a heavy snow storm.

Near Dallas, Texas, an automobile with its windshield covered with snow, collided with an interurban trolley car and five women were killed.

To men met death when their truck was demolished by a train near Seneca, Mo., in a snowstorm, and a man and his wife were killed near Cisco, Texas by a train which struck their automobile in a fog.

An air mail plane bound for Cleveland was forced down by the snow storm and cold near Collins Center, Erie county, N. Y.

A man repairing his automobile in the snow storm at Snackover, Ark., was struck and killed by another car.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Winter has pitched his snow-frosted tent on the plains of the northwest and has sent his soldiers, armed with icicle bayonets, to the northern fringe of Dixie.

Three River Falls, Minn., stole whatever distinction there was yesterday in being pre-seasonally cold, having a temperature reading of 16 below zero. The red line, however, dropped below the cipher in many other thermometers in Minnesota, the Dakotas and Wisconsin.

The southwest and the Rocky Mountain regions did not escape the cold. Temperatures went below zero in Montana, and there was sleet and raw weather in the Texas Panhandle, and unseasonal cold in Arkansas.

Warmer Tomorrow
Winter began his first 1929-30 attack from the Mackenzie River basin in Upper Saskatchewan, Chicago and the middle west had hints of coming cold earlier in the week, but yesterday was the first day that heavy overcoats were absolutely necessary.

At dawn today the temperature here had descended to six degrees above.

Railroads leading to the northland reported scores of reservation cancellations by hunters who preferred steam heat to the Arctic rigors of Upper Michigan, where snowstorms accompanied the cold.

Sunshine was promised today for much of the middle west, but there was not much assurance that temperatures would move upward appreciably. Tomorrow, however, much warmer weather was predicted; and this was a prophecy that warmed the hearts of thousands of persons who have tickets for tomorrow's football games.

SNOW IN EAST
New York, Nov. 22 (AP)—A white blanket covered much of New England, New York and Pennsylvania today as a result of the first general snowstorm of the season in the east.

The storm, which swept in from the Great Lakes yesterday, brought with it a sharp drop in temperature and in some cases assumed blizzard proportions. The heaviest fall occurred along the south shore of Lake Erie, 19 inches having fallen at Dunkirk, N. Y.

A fall of several inches occurred in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, western and northern Pennsylvania and western New York.

Numerous automobile accidents were reported, the wet and heavy snow clinging to windshields and obscuring the vision of drivers.

SNOW CAUSES TRAGEDIES
Kansas City, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Nine persons were dead today as the result of accidents attributed to blinding snow storms and other inclement weather conditions in Missouri and Texas. Five women were killed near Dallas yesterday when their automobile struck an interurban car. The Negro chauffeur, critically injured, said snow on the windshield impeded his vision.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Davis of San Diego, Cal., were killed near Cisco by a train which struck their car in a fog.

Two men, Reese Maxwell, and Ben Crabtree, both of Commerce, Okla., were killed when their truck was demolished by a train near Seneca, Missouri, in a snow storm.

Montgomery Co. Grand Jury Has Indicted Co-Worker

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Indicting one of its own members was the novel experience of the November Montgomery county grand jury which reported to county authorities yesterday afternoon.

Among the 33 true bills returned was one indicting Jacob Evans, of Panama, one of the grand jurors, for conspiracy to force Dr. Arthur S. Needles to leave Panama. He was compelled to consider the evidence against himself and five other men.

The six men, all well known Panama coal miners, are charged with having threatened to assault Doctor Needles unless he moved out of the community. Fearing that he would be attacked the physician left town, giving up a lucrative practice, it is said.

ROLL CALL OF RED CROSS IS STARTED HERE

E. B. Raymond Chair- man Of Drive For Dixon Unit

The thirteenth annual drive for Red Cross membership has been launched in Dixon with E. B. Raymond serving as chairman of the Dixon unit, which comprises Ashton, Franklin Grove and Ansoy. Just preceding the holiday season each year, the nation-wide drive for Red Cross memberships is launched. The Dixon unit has been asked to subscribe in memberships and donations a sum amounting to $500.

Annual memberships in the national Red Cross cost but one dollar per year and much of the amount is raised in this manner. Subscriptions of larger amounts are also applied on the amount.

At this season of the year there is an influx of appeals for charitable and other purposes, but the American Red Cross is something entirely different. It is the nation's recognized agency of mercy to those who suffer injury, disaster or epidemic.

Whenever and wherever disaster strikes, the American Red Cross is there to render immediate relief.

The annual drive in the Dixon district opened Wednesday and will continue until November 30. Col. W. B. Brinton is chairman of the county chapter, W. C. Durkes, treasurer and E. B. Raymond, chairman of the annual roll call.

HIS CONDITION HOPELESS, HIS PHYSICIAN SAYS

Uremic Poison is Slowly Sapping Life Of War Premier

Paris, Nov. 22.—(UP)—Dr. Lucien Degennes announced today that the condition of Georges Clemenceau was hopeless.

"Death is now a question of 24 hours," the physician said. "His condition is most grave and there is no hope. His kidneys have not functioned for 18 hours and he is slowly being poisoned."

Paris, Nov. 22.—(UP)—Georges Clemenceau, war time Premier of France, clung to life with a precarious hold today, his iron constitution holding out stubbornly against the advance of uremia.

After a night and day of intense suffering, relieved by injections of morphine and camphor oil, to strengthen his heart, the aged man was a little better at 4 P. M., except for momentary lapse he remained conscious.

His doctors were gravely worried. There was danger that his weakened heart, which survived a critical attack a month ago, might give out under the added strain. Clemenceau suffered great abdominal pain from colic.

Clemenceau's condition continued increasingly worse this afternoon. He protested constantly that he was in pain and groaned continually. The progress of the uremia appeared rapid.

Although he talked last night, Clemenceau spoke only twice this morning. Once Dr. Charles Laubry, attending him, asked if he suffered.

"I should say so," the Tiger replied. He spoke again—just a word or two—when his secretary entered the room.

For the first time in many years Clemenceau was in bed dressed only in his nightgown. He was unable to support bedding or clothes on his abdomen. It was customary for him to wear heavy clothes to bed because he often arose in the middle of the night to write in his book.

Hepatic colics were the cause of intense suffering as he gradually lost strength.

Hundreds of visitors called at the house during the day, including a representative of President Gaston Doumergue and members of various embassy staffs.

With full knowledge of his weakening condition, Clemenceau still found grounds for much amusement earlier today in the story told him of the rumors of his death which were circulated yesterday.

He laughed when informed that his former protegee, Premier Andre Tardieu, had rushed to the Rue Franklin to learn if the report were true. Relations between the Tiger and the present Premier have been strained somewhat since Tardieu joined the Poincare government in 1926.

"He thought he'd have the pleasure of seeing me in my bier," Clemenceau chuckled.

"I fooled him as I am happy to have fooled lots of others."

The Tiger, it was learned, holds the fear if he dies while Tardieu is in office that the latter will insist upon a great state funeral. To defeat such a plan he gave instructions to his family to make no announcement of his death until 48 hours afterwards and at that time to spirit his coffin by automobile to Vendee for burial there in a grave which was prepared beside that of his father years ago.

Wants Private Funeral
He laughed when informed that his former protegee, Premier Andre Tardieu, had rushed to the Rue Franklin to learn if the report were true. Relations between the Tiger and the present Premier have been strained somewhat since Tardieu joined the Poincare government in 1926.

"He thought he'd have the pleasure of seeing me in my bier," Clemenceau chuckled.

THREE KILLED IN FALL FROM TALL CHIMNEY

Scaffold Broke Under Weight Of Steeple- Jacks Yesterday

New York, Nov. 22.—(UP)—Three steeplejacks perched on the thread-like boards they had strung across the top of a high chimney in Brooklyn tumbled to death yesterday when their scaffolding snapped.

It was not until early today—approximately 16 hours after the accident—that Michael Walsh, a watchman for the American Sugar Refinery, on which the chimney was located, opened a trap door at the base of the stack and found the three bodies in the huge grate.

The dead:
William T. Clark of North Arlington, N. J.
Alfred Clark of Harrison, N. J., his brother.
Anthony Miller of North Arlington, N. J.

Firemen placed ladders inside the chimney, climbed up and near the top found the smashed scaffolding lodged against the chimney walls. Apparently the boards were too frail to sustain the weight of the three men.

SAYS MICHIGAN 'LIFE FOR PINT' CONVICTS FRAMED

Man Who Says He Was 'In On Deals' Tells Of Frame-Ups

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 22 (UP)—A grand jury investigation into the conviction of Mrs. Etta Mae Miller and Fred Palm, who are serving life sentences for violation of the state liquor laws, was ordered this morning by John Wendell Bird, Ingham County Prosecutor.

The order was made following the publication of an interview with Frank Eastman, former member of the Lansing city liquor squad by a Chicago newspaper. In the interview Eastman said that liquor was "planted" and used as the basis of the conviction in the two cases.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—(UP)—The Chicago Tribune today quoted Frank Eastman, former Lansing, Mich., police prohibition raider, as declaring Michigan's two "life for a pint" prisoners were convicted because liquor was "planted" by officers.

Eastman and his former partner William Knapp, arrested Fred Palm and Mrs. Etta Mae Miller on the charges that put them in prison for life under the Michigan law providing that penalty on fourth conviction of felony.

Mrs. Miller, the mother of 10 children, was convicted of a third offense after liquor had been placed in the cupboard of her house on Knapp's orders, the Tribune story said Eastman declared. Her fourth conviction, it continued, was obtained on the evidence of a small quantity of liquor obtained from two rubber alcohol bottles thrown from an automobile in which Mrs. Miller was riding with a man.

Confessor "Plant"
Eastman himself "planted" a partly filled bottle of gin in one of Palm's boots, the Tribune story said. The former Michigan patrolman was quoted as saying:

"Knapp and I went to Palm's house to get him for jumping bond in a liquor case. I found a pint bottle partly filled with gin on the floor and dropped it into one of a pair of boots on the back porch. After I got Palm, I recovered the bottle and kidded him about it."

"When we got to the station, the gin bottle over to the desk sergeant as a matter of course. I thought Palm had been brought in as a future witness. The next day I heard him pleading guilty to possession of liquor for having the gin I found in the house."

"So Palm went up like a lion on that charge we had trumped up on him. We had no right to enter or search his house and we could never have proved the gin was his."

STERLING TUCKMAN
Escapes Fire Death
Chicago, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Dorvil Vanderbilt, 24, of Sterling, Ill., narrowly escaped burning to death today when the truck he was driving collided with another and burst into flames. Vanderbilt extricated himself from the wreckage with only minor lacerations.

Terse Items of News Gathered in Dixon During Day

REV. MARSHALL NAMED

The Rev. Walter W. Marshall has been appointed by the State Board of the Illinois Baptist State Convention as one of the five commissioners on Visitation for the State of Illinois.

TALKED TO STUDENTS
W. J. Sullivan, superintendent of the Dixon Borden company plant, gave a very interesting talk before the civics class at the high school this morning. Mr. Sullivan spoke of the confectionery industry not only to the company which he represents, but nationally as a vocation.

HIGH SCHOOL TO OREGON
Members of the Dixon high school football squad who have been idle for a two weeks period, will don their moleskins again tomorrow and go to Oregon to meet the team from the high school of that city in a non-conference contest. This will be the last game out of the city, with but one more contest remaining on the schedule for the 1929 squad, that being the annual tilt with Sterling, which will be played on the north side athletic field Thursday afternoon, Thanksgiving.

ENTERS GUILTY PLEA
Joseph Naiziger of this city appeared before Judge Leech in the county court late yesterday afternoon and entered a plea of guilty to a charge of possessing and selling intoxicating liquor and made application for a parole. He was assessed a fine of $100 and the costs and admitted to probation for a period of one year.

Judge Leech has set the trial of John Nagle, charged with possessing and selling intoxicating liquor for Monday, and Harry Wright, proprietor of a Depot avenue lunch room, charged with the same offense, has been notified to report Tuesday for trial.

NEW SERVICE STATION
The Barron & Carson service station and garage on Peoria avenue will conduct the formal opening of their new gasoline and oil department tomorrow. The popular firm have completed the task of installing the latest modern type of service in the new department, using the latest type of electric pumps, the first of the kind to be installed in this locality. Texaco products are being specialized in this department.

In installing the gas and oil service department, the firm have expended a considerable sum, in making a success of the one stop service in which they are specializing. There is nothing to be done to an automobile that cannot be furnished the motorist under the one roof. The service station is under roof and is approached on street level drives of sufficient width to care for two lanes of traffic.

ALLEGED ROBBER TAKEN
Kenneth Bennett, aged 24, was placed under arrest last evening by a deputy from the office of Sheriff Ward Miller and turned over to Sheriff Albert Johnson of Belvidere, who held a warrant charging burglary. Bennett was alleged to have participated in the recent robbery of a pool room in Belvidere in which the combination of a safe was battered and the strong box emptied of its contents.

Suspicion pointed to Bennett's having had a part in the robbery when he is alleged to have attempted to cash one of a number of checks which were reported to have been stolen from the safe. He had come to Dixon to visit with relatives for a few days when he was apprehended. Sheriff Johnson was accompanied by Dixon by State's Attorney Alex J. Strohm. They arrived late yesterday afternoon and consulted with Sheriff Miller who in turn furnished a description of the young man to the police. One of the sheriff's deputies apprehended Bennett in the business section late in the afternoon and he was returned to Belvidere with the Boone county officers at once.

POWERFUL KILLER
London—Prof. Leonard Hill recently told the Sanitary Inspectors' Association of a powerful poison, produced by a bacillus, a mere pinch of which would kill a million men. "The toxin produced by this bacillus is powerful enough that one gram of the dry toxin would suffice to kill a million," Hill said.

BUILDING FIELD ASKED TO HELP HOOVER PROGRAM

Labor And Capital Are Agreed To Work In Interest Progress

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Pleased with the far-reaching agreement entered into by industrial and labor leaders to maintain wage stability during the present business situation, President Hoover today turned to representatives in the general building field for cooperation in the nation-wide program for promotion of economic progress.

More than a dozen spokesmen for contractors, manufacturers, and real estate boards were in Washington for an afternoon conference at the White House, the last to be held this week and the fifth in the series of seven which Mr. Hoover has arranged as a means of offsetting any general effect of the fall in stock prices.

On Monday the Chief Executive will meet with Secretary Hyde, Chairman League of the Farm Board, and representatives of farm organizations. The conference with spokesmen for public utilities, set for Monday, has been postponed until representatives of that industry have held a meeting to determine upon the precise program of expansion and construction they can undertake in the coming year.

Outstanding Result
Government officials generally viewed the agreement against wage cuts and industrial disputes during the period of stabilization as perhaps the most outstanding development that will come from the conferences called by the President. This proposal caused prolonged discussion and accounted for the unusual length of both of meetings yesterday, each of which lasted more than three hours.

After the White House conferences have been completed, the United States Chamber of Commerce will carry on a call having been sent to many trade organizations to send representatives here on Dec. 5 for an exchange of views and the creation of an executive committee which will function as a coordinating body for business in cooperation with the Department and other governmental agencies.

It is the present intention that representatives of the Chamber or the executive committee hold sessions with representatives of a number of the smaller groups in the industrial, commercial and business communities to obtain their cooperation in the movement.

Program Takes Shape
It was one week ago today that Mr. Hoover made the first announcement of his plans and in the time that has passed since then his program has taken shape rapidly, through his consultations with the leaders of American commerce of steps by which government agencies seek to help in the advancement of the general project.

The most recent development was publication of word that industrial leaders and labor spokesmen had agreed to a continuance of present wage levels as one means of assuring the continuity and stability of employment. This came late yesterday after Mr. Hoover had conferred separately with a group of men representing firms which employ millions of workers and with high officials of organized labor.

The announcement was summed up in a formal White House statement which said that the employers had authorized the President to say on their behalf, individually, that no movement for wage reduction will be initiated and to recommend that this policy be adopted by employers the nation over.

In addition it set forth that the labor leaders had authorized Mr. Hoover to say that in their opinion "no movements beyond those already in negotiation should be initiated for increases of wages and that every cooperation should be given by labor in the handling of its problems."

Four Parties Seek
Lost Arctic Pilot
Nome, Alaska, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Four parties were scouting the terrain in the vicinity of North Cape, Siberia, today in search of Carl Ben Eielson, noted Arctic pilot, who has been missing since Nov. 9, while Pilot Frank Dorland was waiting here ready to conduct a search from the air when the weather moderates sufficiently to make a flight feasible.

Eielson, in cooperation with Dorland, was engaged in transporting passengers and furs to Nome from the Svensen Fur Trading Company ship Nanuk, icebound near North Cape.

They also were to take 67 passengers on the Soviet ship Slavropol, locked in the ice near the Nanuk.

Young Man With Date Could Afford To Be So Generous

Evankton, Ill., Nov. 22.—(UP)—The young man had a date with his best girl, he said, so David Nord hustled him into the waiting booth and pressed his trousers in record time.

"That's fine," said the supposed swain, "here's 25 cents extra for your trouble."

The tailor shook his head. "Go on, take it," urged the stranger. "I can afford it."

Nord thought so too when he looked in his cash register after the man had gone. He had looted it of $35.50.

GRAND MASTER STATE MASONS DIXON VISITOR

Was Guest Of Honor at Banquet Held Here Last Evening

Edward C. Mullen of Chicago, Worshipful Grand Master of Illinois Masons was the guest of honor at a complimentary banquet and meeting held at the Brinton Memorial Masonic Temple last evening under the auspices of Friendship lodge, No. 7 A. F. & A. M. He was accompanied to Dixon by Stephen F. Roche, George J. Dreske, Raymond J. Elliott and Roscoe C. Clark, district deputies of the Chicago districts, R. W. Mitchell of the Sterling district and Harry W. Stauffer of the Dixon district.

A delicious banquet was served at 6:30 in the banquet hall by the ladies of the Order of Eastern Star. A total of 233 were seated at the banquet tables. During the banquet the Masonic male quartette from Freeport furnished several delightful selections. This melodious quartette was again heard in the meeting which followed the dinner.

Ralph M. Ferguson, Worshipful Master of Friendship lodge, presided as toastmaster following the banquet, and introduced the visiting Grand Lodge officers and district deputies. Mrs. Clinton Ives, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Bishop, rendered beautiful violin numbers. The feature of the evening was the address of the guest of honor, who used as his subject, "Fundamental Principles and Precepts of Masonry," his talk being much enjoyed by all who were privileged to attend. Toastmaster Ferguson also called upon the visiting district deputies who gave short talks and altogether the evening proved one of the most thoroughly enjoyable and interesting of any event sponsored by Friendship lodge in many months.

Radio Program Man
Faces Murder Charge
San Francisco, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Lawrence P. Tulloch, 38, program director for a local broadcasting station, who came here three weeks ago from New York, today faced a charge of murder as the result of the fatal shooting of Mrs. Gertrude Hawkins Layne, 23, a divorcee, as the aftermath of a party in his apartment in the Latin quarter of San Francisco.

The murder charge was filed late last night after Tulloch, having been questioned for several hours, admitted firing the shot although insisting it was accidental.

When Mrs. Layne was found dying in the apartment yesterday Tulloch and William Whitte, who shared the apartment, told police she shot herself. Discrepancies in their story caused them to be held. Whitte was released when Tulloch admitted he had held the gun.

Maurine Gibson's
Funeral Tomorrow
The remains of Miss Maurine Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gibson, arrived in Dixon this morning from Tucson, Ariz., where she passed away Tuesday morning. Funeral services will be conducted from the family residence, 114 East Chamberlain street Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. B. H. Cleaver, pastor of the Christian church officiating and with interment in Oakwood. The obituary will be published later.

Vote Short Week in Stock Exchanges
New York, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The "board of Governors of the New York Stock Exchange today voted to resume normal 5-hour trading sessions on Monday, next week, but to close the exchange all day on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 29 and 30 in addition to the regular Thanksgiving holiday on Thursday.

New Taxi Service
Starts Tomorrow
John L. Edous and Wilson Eastman, two local young men, today announced the establishment of their new taxi service effective tomorrow, with headquarters at 115 Hennepin ave. A fleet of new cars has been purchased for the service.

INCREASE THEIR BUDGETS TO AID
HOOVER PROGRAM
Meet In Chicago Today
To Plan Improvement
Work For Year
Chicago, Nov. 22.—(UP)—Two hundred and fifty American railway executives filed into the Chinese ball room of the Blackstone Hotel shortly before noon today and laid expansive plans for opening the throttle of the nation's transportation industry along the lines projected by President Hoover.

As the weather-beaten presidents and vice presidents of big and little roads alike took their places in gift chairs amid the gold and crystal trappings of their exclusive quarters, reports were current that the executives would decide to spend even more during the next year than the billion dollars which they promised Mr. Hoover would be poured into expansion of rail and terminal facilities.

Full Steam Ahead
Keeping the engines of industry under a full head of steam to take up the unemployment slack and restore confidence in business conditions in the face of the recent stock market slump, was the unanimous objective of the rail heads. Each executive went into the conference carrying a sheaf of papers which gave a record of the amount of money his company was prepared to spend in the Hoover "back-to-work" campaign.

The men whose decisions today were to mean so much to the general prosperity of the working man as well as the steel magnate, were not the usual type of financiers who are credited with controlling the ebb and flow of money through the stock markets. Like Pat Crowley, chairman of the New York Central Lines, many of them showed that they had worked themselves up to positions of power from humble tasks in switching yards and roundhouses. There was not a spat, not a walking stick in the group. Almost unanimously their suits were hand-finished and conservatively tailored.

More Liberal Budgets
J. J. Bennett, head of the C. & O., was among those who pointed out that the railroads of the country probably would have budgeted expansion and improvement expenditures totaling a billion dollars for 1930 without President Hoover's suggestion. In view of the President's desire to keep the American industry machines running at capacity through the next 12 months, however, it was considered likely that railroad budgets would be more liberal than ever before.

Chambers of Commerce and civic clubs in many parts of the country have taken advantage of the billion dollar business surge to suggest to railroad heads that all manner of local improvements be undertaken, especially in the west where travelers have fewer conveniences than along the Atlantic seaboard.

The question of rail rates was under discussion by some of the executives but there were no indications that they would be reduced below the levels already established by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Although none of the executives suggested wage increases in line with Henry Ford's decision to raise the pay of workers in his automobile plants, assurances were given unofficially that wages would be maintained at the present levels.

Mooney's Appeal Is Before Pardon Board

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 22.—(AP)—The fate of Thomas J. Mooney, who for years has protested from a prison cell that he is innocent of the 1916 Preparedness Day bombing in San Francisco, which killed ten persons and injured many others, rested almost entirely today in the hands of the Pardon Board.

Gov. C. G. Young, indicated he would let the decision of the parole board be the final word in the case when he requested yesterday that it investigate and recommend action on Mooney's pardon appeal.

PROBE BLAST IN CAPITAL: 5 DEAD AND 40 INJURED

Seven Different Investigations Are Now Under Way

Washington, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The cause of an explosion in downtown Washington which brought death to five persons and injuries to many more was the subject today of seven different investigations.

The disaster, which occurred late yesterday in a Seventh Street five and ten cent store crowded with shoppers, shattered the front of the store, lifted the heavy masonry of the sidewalk outside high in the air and littered the thoroughfare with debris.

The injured numbered more than forty, with five in such a serious condition that death is expected. The victims of the explosions were mostly passersby, as the force of the blast was upward and outward and many in the store escaped through a rear exit.

The dead were: Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, Charles Jacobson, Miss Catherine Cullinane, Mrs. Anna May Cockerell and her infant daughter, Mary Ann Cockerell.

Develops Corn To Resist Corn Borer

London, Ont., Nov. 22.—(AP)—Development of a strain of corn which resists the ravages of the European corn borer has been announced by A. B. Marston, superintendent of the Michigan Corn Borer Experimental Station at Monroe, Mich.

In an address before the Entomological Society on Ontario yesterday, Mr. Marston said Maize Amargo, a South American strain, had been cross bred with Duncan, Golden Glow and Red Cob ensilage strains and then inbred to produce a corn which was immune to the corn borer.

After three years experimenting, he said, the strain had proved 100 per cent resistant when planted with a tenuous row of corn infested with the parasite.

Five years would be required, he said, before the new strain would be available for general planting.

Chorus Girl, Latest Model

Patay O'Day

NO BOYISH FIGURE HERE!—Florence Ziegfeld having set his face against the flat-chested, bony form as being contrary to any authentic standard of feminine beauty, his crop of 1929-30 beauties are among the earliest harbingers of the return to the chorus of normal feminine curves. Miss O'Day is one of the highlights of the chorus of "Show Girl", the new Ziegfeld show opening on Broadway and hailed by critics as setting a new mark for musical comedy producers to shoot at.

SON OF BILLY SUNDAY SOUGHT BY PROSECUTOR

Model, Alleged Paramour, Also Wanted By Officials

Los Angeles, Nov. 22.—(AP)—A Hollywood cloak model and George M. Sunday, son of the evangelist, were sought today on complaints charging a statutory offense. Simultaneously with announcement that the complaints had been issued the younger Sunday's wife, Mrs. Harriet Sunday, revealed her attorney is preparing a divorce suit, naming the model, Mrs. Mauryne LaSalle.

Charges made by Mrs. Sunday led Deputy District Attorney George Stahlman to issue complaints against Sunday and Mrs. LaSalle.

Bonds of $10,000 were set for the couple, who are said to have disappeared. Sunday was reported to have dropped from sight Nov. 1, while Mrs. LaSalle has been missing since her appearance at the District Attorney's office for questioning soon after investigation was begun at Mrs. Sunday's request.

Sunday and Mrs. LaSalle were surprised in the Sunday home on the night of October 27, according to the charge of Mrs. Sunday.

Mrs. LaSalle, who was divorced last year, is the mother of a 5-year-old son, while the Sundays have two children, George, Jr., 15, and John Mason Sunday, 13.

LENOVO

When Earth's last picture is painted

And the tubes are twisted and dried

When the oldest colors have faded

And the youngest critic has died

We shall rest—and, faith, we shall need it—

Lie down for an aeon or two, Till the Master of All Good Workmen

Shall set us to work anew!

And those that were good shall be happy;

They shall sit in a golden chair;

They shall splash at a ten-league canvas

With brushes of comet's hair;

They shall find real saints to draw from—

Magdalene, Peter and Paul;

They shall work for an age at a sitting

And never get tired at all

And only the Master shall praise us.

And only the Master shall blame;

And no one shall work for money,

And no one shall work for fame;

But each for the joy of the working.

And each in his separate star.

Shall draw the Thing as he sees it.

For the God of Things as They Are.

—Rudyard Kipling.

Palmyra Mutual Aid Met Wednesday

The Palmyra Mutual Aid Society held a most enjoyable meeting November 20th at the home of Mrs. A. R. Beede. Twenty-five members and two visitors enjoyed the delicious chicken and biscuit dinner served at noon.

The business meeting was opened by all repeating the Lord's Prayer followed by everyone singing "America, the Beautiful". Secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved. Thanksgiving papers were read by Mrs. Mame Williams and Mrs. Clara Goodrich. Roll call was answered to by Thanksgiving quotations. Two piano solos by Mrs. Lila Hart were enjoyed by the society. The day was spent sewing for the Christmas box.

Everyone departed for their homes late in the afternoon after a delightful day. The next meeting to be held in two weeks, the meeting place to be announced later.

Social Netted Morrissey School $75 Tuesday Evening

Despite the fact that Mother Nature did not endow them with a bright moonlight night, the box social held at the Morrissey School Tuesday evening was unusually successful both from a financial and social standpoint. After all the indebtedness incurred for the social were paid the school realized a net profit of $75 which is in excess of the amount made by most affairs of this kind.

The program which was under the supervision of the teacher, Miss Catherine Murtagh, was considered very fine from a dramatic standpoint. The program which was presented by the youngsters consisted of the following numbers:

Welcome—Vivian Piper and Gilbert Essex.

Reading—Hannah Jane Essex.

Reading—Donald Piper.

Play, "Guys from Whittier Land." Bessie—Bernice Essex.

Barfoot Boy—Cecil Piper.

Maude Muller—Helen Noble.

School Girl—Hannah Essex.

School Boy—Donald Piper.

Barbara Fritchle—Rose Murtagh.

Reading—Helen Blackburn.

Song—Ethel Noble.

Reading—James Farley.

Reading—Junior Schroeder.

Reading—Bernice Essex.

Reading—Helen Noble.

Play, "Stretching a Dime." Uncle John—James Farley.

Herbert—Cecil Piper.

Ethel—Helen Noble.

Vera—Bernice Essex.

Don—Junior Schroeder.

George—Edward Farley.

The money will be used to purchase playground equipment and for supplementary text books and other books to make the library timely and consist of books that modern day educators regard as essential for grammar school boys and girls.

Golden Wedding Celebrated Today By Rochelle Folks

(Telegraph Special Service)

Rochelle, Nov. 22—Today is the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Reinke, of 315 Ninth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Reinke are keeping open house today and on Saturday they will be honored at a family reunion at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Keacker of Rochelle. The program will include violin solos by Mrs. Walter Lemke of Rockford, piano solos by Mrs. Kenneth Keacker, also the wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reinke were married in Germany on Nov. 22, 1879 and came to America in April 1881, settling near Rochelle and Steward. They retired to Rochelle from the farm in 1916. Four children came to bless this union, three of whom are living: Will, of Oregon; Mrs. Charles Keacker, of Rochelle; John, of Rochelle. One child died in infancy.

A picture on the wall can be a window into the world, and a bookcase a door. If the books you own tell you how life is lived somewhere else, in Europe, Asia, Africa, or the other corners of our own country, and if you can read them in a spirit of inquiry, there is a chance that you may add to your good citizenship in American a spiritual good citizenship of the great world. Travel may be accomplished through the printed page as well as prepared for by its help. Adventure in far-off jungles can follow a day on a poultry farm, and you may come in from the prairie and spend the evening climbing Mount Everest. Pictures in books like these have reached such a point of clearness and beauty that often when you go actually abroad and see some castle or famous street you have a curious sense of having seen it somewhere before, and remember that it was an illustration. Such an experience never dulls the pleasure of seeing the place with your own eyes; on the contrary, it gives the added charm of acquaintance, however slight. And then, if you never do visit the castle, you at least have in your bookcase the chance to look at it, and read its story, when ever you so desire. Travel books are for two kinds of readers: those who travel and those who cannot.

Parents or friends desiring help in choosing suitable books for children will find a list at the library or from the school principals.

There are also nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The grandchildren are: Mrs. Harold Blackburn, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Miss Lucille Reinke, Rockford; and Donald, Genevieve and Robert Leszinske, all of Oregon; Mrs. Paul Leszinske, Rockford; and Kenneth Keacker of Rochelle; and Mina and John Reinke of Rochelle.

The great grandchildren are: Genevieve and Robert Glenn Blackburn, of Cheyenne, Wyoming; and Elaine Leszinske, of Rockford.

Mr. Reinke is 73 and his bride of fifty years 67. They are enjoying good health and have not been back to their birthplace since coming to America.

Dr. Cut-Up Will Be Presented Monday

The W. R. C. Auxiliary to the G. A. R. will hold a regular business meeting Monday afternoon in G. A. R. hall, with a short business session and afterwards a one-act play, "Dr. Cut-Up," will be given by the members. At the conclusion of the play to which the friends of the Corps are invited, a Silver Tea will be served. The play is most amusing and is anticipated with pleasure.

This Week Observed As 'Good Book Week'

Nov. 17th to 23rd is being observed all over the nation as "Good Book Week." One way to see that a boy or girl has a good circle of book friends is to see that he owns some good books. This may sound like one of those self-evident truths which need not be mentioned, but unfortunately some people need to be reminded that it is hardly fair to say, "My boy reads nothing but trash," or "My girl does not care for reading," and omit to mention that the boy has had little else provided for him in the way of reading matter, and that the girl's hair ribbons have been far more carefully chosen for her than her books have been. Etc., etc.

A Door into the World.

A picture on the wall can be a window into the world, and a bookcase a door. If the books you own tell you how life is lived somewhere else, in Europe, Asia, Africa, or the other corners of our own country, and if you can read them in a spirit of inquiry, there is a chance that you may add to your good citizenship in American a spiritual good citizenship of the great world. Four children came to bless this union, three of whom are living: Will, of Oregon; Mrs. Charles Keacker, of Rochelle; John, of Rochelle. One child died in infancy.

A picture on the wall can be a window into the world, and a bookcase a door. If the books you own tell you how life is lived somewhere else, in Europe, Asia, Africa, or the other corners of our own country, and if you can read them in a spirit of inquiry, there is a chance that you may add to your good citizenship in American a spiritual good citizenship of the great world. Travel may be accomplished through the printed page as well as prepared for by its help. Adventure in far-off jungles can follow a day on a poultry farm, and you may come in from the prairie and spend the evening climbing Mount Everest. Pictures in books like these have reached such a point of clearness and beauty that often when you go actually abroad and see some castle or famous street you have a curious sense of having seen it somewhere before, and remember that it was an illustration. Such an experience never dulls the pleasure of seeing the place with your own eyes; on the contrary, it gives the added charm of acquaintance, however slight. And then, if you never do visit the castle, you at least have in your bookcase the chance to look at it, and read its story, when ever you so desire. Travel books are for two kinds of readers: those who travel and those who cannot.

Parents or friends desiring help in choosing suitable books for children will find a list at the library or from the school principals.

There are also nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The grandchildren are: Mrs. Harold Blackburn, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Miss Lucille Reinke, Rockford; and Donald, Genevieve and Robert Leszinske, all of Oregon; Mrs. Paul Leszinske, Rockford; and Kenneth Keacker of Rochelle; and Mina and John Reinke of Rochelle.

The great grandchildren are: Genevieve and Robert Glenn Blackburn, of Cheyenne, Wyoming; and Elaine Leszinske, of Rockford.

Mr. Reinke is 73 and his bride of fifty years 67. They are enjoying good health and have not been back to their birthplace since coming to America.

WHAT INGENUITY CAN DO.

The most unpredictable thing in the world is human ingenuity. Any other element in life can, to a certain extent, be judged in advance; but you never can tell in what way the inventive genius of mankind may not confound your estimates.

The progress of the Germans in warship construction in the last few years is an interesting example.

When the Versailles treaty was drawn up, the English were determined that German naval power should be crippled forever. In 1914 the great German fleet was larger than any other on earth except England's. It was strong enough to prove a genuine menace, and in the battle of Jutland it gave an impressive account of itself.

England did not want to face that situation again. So Germany was prevented from building any battleship exceeding 10,000 tons in weight. The size of its cruisers was similarly restricted. Rigid limits were placed on the caliber of the guns that these reduced warships might mount.

The thing looked absolutely certain. The modern battleship mounts 14 or 16-inch guns and is around 30,000 tons in size. How could any battleship Germany might build hope to cope with such a vessel?

It was the same in the cruiser division. The new cruisers being built by England and America are of 10,000 tons and mount eight-inch guns. One of them, it would be supposed, might be a match for the strongest battleship Germany could ever build.

But the inventive genius of Germany was one thing that the treaty makers could not gauge in advance.

The new German battleship, which keeps strictly within treaty limits, is a profound departure from all former naval standards. A third the size of the ordinary battleship, it nevertheless possesses armament that would enable it to stand up to any one of them in combat; and, in addition, it has greater speed than any other battleship afloat, so that it could get away safely if the odds were too great. It could simply pulverize any cruiser in existence.

And the new German cruisers are, likewise, a vast surprise. Limited to 6000 tons in size, they are nevertheless said to be capable of out-sailing and out-fighting any English or American cruiser of greater size.

Thus the Germans, although the treaty was expected to limit them to a position of minor importance in naval circles, may yet, because of their inventive genius, regain their old place as a premier naval power.

For all ordinary situations in life it is possible to provide rules in advance. But no one can ever tell what developments human ingenuity is going to bring about. The human brain can work miracles that rule-makers can never foresee.

PERHAPS SPEED IS DANGEROUS.

For a long time there has been a theory—held, among others, by this writer—that fast automobile traffic was not necessarily dangerous.

This theory has found expression in the lifting of the speed limit in a number of states and cities. It has been felt that the old, rigid speed limits did not really cut down the number of accidents, but merely delayed traffic.

But maybe the theory needs revision. At any rate, the city of Cleveland some time ago lifted its speed limit from 25 miles an hour to 35 miles. And since that was done, automobile traffic deaths have run nearly twice as high as they did before.

Perhaps it would be a good thing to stick to the old speed limits for a while, after all.

J. P. Morgan won a prize the other day at a flower show for raising the largest and prettiest violets. Mr. Morgan also does pretty well in clover.

Sing Sing prison is cutting down on the number of motion pictures. Are penitentiary officials seeking the causes for those recent riots?

The Iowa lady who has seen more than 5000 movies ought to be pretty well acquainted with the plot by now.

Women control 41 per cent of the nation's billions, statistics reveal. There's no denying they have the figures at their command.

A Turk, 143 years old, was killed in an automobile accident the other day. The dispatch didn't say whether or not his parents blamed the driver.

A crying baby saved the lives of six people when a house in Chicago was burned. Father probably awakened the other members of the family.

and finally reached a branch of the meandering Ohio.

After several other expeditions, La Salle reached the Mississippi on Feb. 6, 1683. He traced the great waterway to the sea and proclaimed the river and all the lands it drained to be the dominions of Louis XIV, king of France.

Returning to France, the explorer was fitted out with ships and men to make a voyage directly to the mouth of the Mississippi. The party was unable to locate the river, however, and LaSalle was shot from ambush in 1687, during one of the repeated quarrels with his followers.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The cave hole seemed to stretch and yawn and Clowdy cried, "I fear we're gone. It's just as black as night in there. I wonder what's inside. This sled, on us, may play a trick. I don't think that this trip is so slick. Just see how big that entrance looks. Oh my, but it is wide." "Well, here we go," brave Scouty said. "Look out there, Coppy; duck your head, or you'll be knocked out into space. We don't want things like that!" The other three were on their knees. The big bark sled slid on with ease. Wee Coppy took no chance. Very quickly he dropped flat.

And then into the cave they sped and not a single word was said till Coppy whispered, "Gee, it's dark. I wonder where we are. At something new we'll have our fling. My goodness, I can't see a thing. We've left the light behind us, though we haven't traveled far."

Then Scouty chimed right in. Said he, "Say lads, I really think that we are moving on and on and on. I wonder when we'll stop. Apparently we're still in air. We must be heading for somewhere. I hope the sled holds up and doesn't take a sudden drop."

Then came a bump that jarred the bunch. Scared Clowdy said, "I have a hunch that we have stopped. Oh, look ahead. I see a ray of light. And now I'm sure we're standing still. Oh, gee, this gives me quite a thrill. As long as there is light nearby, I guess we'll be all right."

The Tinymites very shortly found that they were now on solid ground. They jumped off of the sled. "Come on," they heard brave Coppy call. So, up they ran, with all their might right to the place where there was light, and there they found some little lanterns hanging on the wall.

(The Tinymites meet some new friends in the next story.)

ROBERT DE LA SALLE

Today is the 286th anniversary of the birth of Robert de LaSalle, famous French explorer, on Nov. 22, 1643. LaSalle was the first discoverer of the Ohio and the first explorer of a greater part of the Mississippi river.

The Frenchman was a member of a wealthy merchant family in Rouen, but on becoming a Jesuit novice he lost the right to inherit his father's fortune and emigrated to Canada at the age of 24.

Inspired by tales of the Indians respecting a mighty river leading southwestward to the sea, LaSalle organized an exploring expedition and sailed up the St. Lawrence and onto the Great Lakes. He turned southeast from Lake Erie

"I Would Not Do Without Kavatone" Says Jackson Woman

Well-Known Jackson Resident Tells Remarkable Story of Health Recovery Through Kavatone.

"I do not believe that I could have stood the awful pains in my back much longer," said Mrs. Fred W. Anderson, 353 West Cortland street, Jackson, Michigan, to the Kavatone Man.

"Kavatone has certainly saved me a lot of suffering because before I used it there was a constant dull pain right across my kidneys. Everytime I stooped over or stood on my feet very long the pain in the small of my back became sharp and cutting, as though someone was stabbing me with a knife. Then in the morning when I first got up my back was stiff and sore and I had to move about in a cramped position before I could straighten up. My condition became so bad that I had dizzy spells and everything turned black before my eyes so that I would nearly fall. After using only two bottles of Kavatone I have found wonderful relief from my kidney trouble. The pains in my back have almost entirely disappeared and my back is no longer stiff and sore when I get up in the morning. I have more energy than I have had in years and I am no longer troubled by those aggravating dizzy spells. I have not stopped using Kavatone yet but my brief experience with it has convinced me that I have at last found something that is doing me world of good. I do not know what I would do without Kavatone."

The Kavatone man is at Ford Hopkins Co., where he is daily meeting the public and personally explaining the merits of this great preparation. The famous Kavatone figure (an ingenious human torso showing every organ of the body) is used in this demonstration and everyone is cordially invited to see and study this figure, an experience which will be interesting and instructive.—Ad.

DIXON MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Annual Thanksgiving Day Service will be held next Thursday morning at 10:00 A. M. in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. A. Turley Stephenson presiding. The Rev. J. Frank Young, D. D. of the First Presbyterian Church will be the speaker. Full program will appear in the "Evening Telegraph" next Tuesday evening.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

Lloyd Warren Walter, Pastor.
Rev. Carl E. Caughman, Pastor in India.

9:30 A. M.—Bible School. Already Christmas is in the air. Come regularly. Swell the numbers and also be instructed and grow.

10:45 A. M.—Divine Worship. Sermon topic: "At Midnight, a Cry." The choir sings special numbers and leads the congregation in worship.

Arrangements are made for those who have not signed their subscription card to do so after the morning worship. At the church supper last Wednesday the congregation adopted a budget of $10,500.00 for 1930. It will be required that all young and old, members of the church subscribe and contribute to the covering of this budget. How can the Lord bless our efforts unless we make an effort. How can He increase the harvest unless we sow the seed? Money given unto the Lord is only loaned; it returns again to you a hundred fold. Try the Lord by gift and life and test the truth of His promise.

6:30 P. M.—Luther League. Topic: "Thanksgiving Through Thanks-Living." Leader, Lillian Koerper. The young people are asked to meet promptly at the hour scheduled. The topics are always interesting and the attendance is good. However many more should attend and use the opportunity for the increase of power and life.

It is time for the party with the children of the Nachusa Home to be definitely arranged. The president will have word for us.

7:30 P. M.—Vesper Worship. The Young People's Choir always gives us special numbers. The hour is devotional, pleasant, warm. Sermon topic: "Be Ye Also Ready."

7:30 P. M.—Wednesday Mid-week service. Topic: "The Higher Patriotism."

The Teachers' training class meets at the close of this worship at about 8:15 P. M.

10:00 A. M.—Thursday at the Methodist Church, the union Thanksgiving service. Dr. Young is the preacher. Come. Be devoutly thankful; be a good citizen.

2:00 P. M.—Saturday. The class of instruction for young people meets. The number is increasing, the interest is growing. Enroll now. We receive enrollments at twelve years and up. None are too old. We have just organized and there is room for more.

You are cordially invited to all our appointments.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Walter W. Marshall, Pastor.

We had a very good song service last night preceding the Gospel Service. The Vibro-Harp solo was very helpful and the duet rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Kindig was greatly appreciated. Tonight the children who have been attending the afternoon meetings will furnish the program of music and all are invited to come to hear the children. There will be no meeting on Saturday. Mr. Marshall spoke on "The Last Testament" basing his address on John fourteen to seventeen. He said: "The Last Will and Testament of anyone always is interesting. In Somerset House, London, there are more wills than anywhere else in the world. There are the wills of Kings and Lords and there are the wills of ordinary people. Some of these wills dispose of millions of money and great estates, others deal with small amounts. There is one that devises the disposal of 36 cents and another that disposes of half a million that the man never possessed but they all deal with goods, estates, and money on this side of the grave. But the Master's will, so clearly indicated in these four chapters, deals with possessions on both sides of the grave. First, He has given us an example, and there is no example like His in all time. We look at the great teachers and leaders of other religions but there are none of them that can compare with our Beloved Lord. Buddha gave up a throne but he almost made the terrible caste system of India and differentiated between men. Confucius told men to be better but gave them no power to enable them to do so. Mahomet carried his religion of the sword into the nations of the east, compelling them to accept Mohammedanism or die and spent his life in war. There are none that can compare with our Lord. Then He has given unto us His peace. A Blood Bought Peace that passeth all understanding. Then He has also sent us a comforter that He may be our Leader and our Guide. He has given to us a promise of His speedy return, and while awaiting that return, He has given us a purpose to live for. We are to follow devotedly. Occupy wholeheartedly hold fast tenaciously, and remember continually until He comes. There are great things in store on the other side indicated to us in His will. "Eye hath not seen, ear hath not heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man to imagine what glorious things He hath prepared for those that love Him but He hath revealed them unto us in those latter days by His Spirit." May we give Him our hearts that we may share in His will for this is His will—even our redemption."

Sunday will be the last day of the campaign, so make up your mind to worship with us.

Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. Adult lesson, "The Higher Patriotism."

Morning service at 10:45 A. M. when the pastor will speak on "In Royal Service."

United senior and junior B. Y. P. U. will meet in the basement at 6:30 P. M. with Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Kindig speaking and singing.

Evening service at 7:30 p. m. Subject: "The Four Suppers."

Tonight (Friday) the gospel service at 7:30 P. M. Subject "The Snowflake on the River."

Next Wednesday night at 7:30 P. M. Prayer meeting and Bible study. Subject—the Book of Exodus, "The Happenings at Sinai."

Thursday at 7:30 P. M. the choir will meet for practice.

During the week-end will be your last opportunity to hear the Kindigs' renowned singing and musical Evangelists. They play the Trombone, Musical Saw, the Vibro-Harp, the Marimba and the Piano. They also sing the sweet songs of Zion. Come along with us and worship. "Now is the accepted time and now is the Day of Salvation." Come.

GRACE EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Pellows and Ottawa

A. D. Shaffer, Pastor.

Mrs. O. E. Stock, Organist.

In spite of the cold weather the auditorium of Grace Church was well filled and the services inspiring. We were honored with the presence of Rev. S. G. Eberly of Polo and Rev. Q. R. Quinor of the Bethel Church.

A rousing song service was led by the pastor Rev. A. D. Shaffer and a solo by Ray Wulbrandt helped to make the meeting interesting.

The resolution of the prodigal son, Luke 15:18, "I will arise and go to my father," served as the basis for the sermon. Rev. Beuscher's subject was, "Why Be A Christian?" The preacher said in part as follows: Man is the creature of desires. If all his wishes would terminate in realization his life would be incomprehensibly rich. We may wish to be a scholar but between wish and attainment lies a long period of sacrifice and determination. I am sure the lazy lounge on the street corner and the roaming tramp of the country highway may have desires to possess a fortune but he prefers his roaming and his lazy inactivity and in consequence he remains what he is. The same is true with merely wishing to be a Christian. If our wishes are not put into action you will never come to enjoy the real blessings of what it means to become a Christian.

In order to be a Christian we must first of all put our will into action. "I will arise and go to my father." Why then should I be a Christian? First, because my conscience tells me that it is the right thing to do. Man must make the decision himself; God never forces anybody to accept His offer of salvation. He invites and entreats. Second, My surroundings demand of me to be a Christian. If I am a father or mother, my children expect me to be a Christian; if I am a friend and neighbor, they expect me to be a Christian. Third, In the stress and strain of life, it is well to be a Christian. While we are strong and healthy and young we feel that we can carry our burdens alone but when sickness, sorrow, separation, reverses in life, in business etc, come, it is a good thing to have implicit faith in the One who said "Cast your burdens upon Me and I will sustain you." Finally, When the moments of dissolution and death approaches it is a comforting thing to be a Christian, to have faith in God and to look forward to the promised haven of rest of which Jesus said, In My Father's house are many mansions.

To be a Christian is fulfilling our souls destination and complies with the desires of our heavenly Father who makes it possible for us to attain his most marvelous experience in Christ Jesus our Saviour. Amen.

To-night will be family night. The Evangelist desires every member of the family present and to sit together. The subject will be "Building An Altar."

Sunday will be a full day. The services are as follows: Morning prayer service 9:30 followed by the Sunday School session at 9:45. Classes are provided for all ages. Every member of the school, as far as possible, should be present. Rev. Philip Beuscher will speak on the subject in the Worship hour at 10:45.

"What Does Calvary Mean to The Christian?" There will be a Men Meeting in the afternoon at 2:30. We invite the men of the city and surrounding territory to be present.

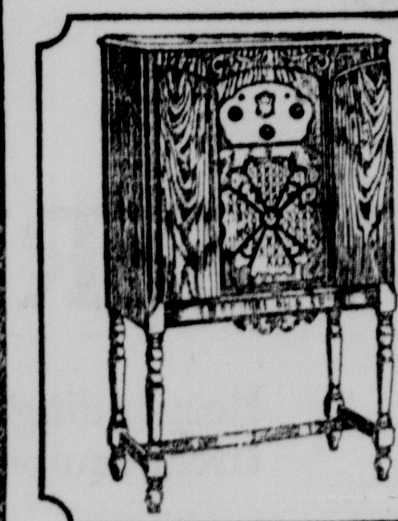

The subject, "A Religion of Sustained Service 7:30. The evangelist theme, "A Great Challenge To Youth." We extend a hearty welcome to the public to attend any of all of the services.

SENATORS TALK IN DEFENSE OF THEIR ACTIONS

Lay Off Work Today To Attack Their Many Critics

BY PAUL R. MALLON

United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, Nov. 22—(UP)—With a last slap at its critics, the seventy-first Congress will adjourn today for a ten day vacation, the House closing up a few minutes after it meets and the Senate at 10 P. M.

The final chastisement was prepared for Fred I. Kent, the Wall Street

banker, connected with the Bankers

Trust Company. He was called before the Senate lobby committee to explain the charge that congressional activities were responsible for the recent precipitation of stock values.

On the Senate floor, a further airing of sentiments against those who share Kent's views was expected to be staged by the Democrats and Independent Republicans.

For lack of anything else to do,

the Senate will proceed with the proposed increase of the duty on wool rags from 8 cents to 24 cents a pound. A strong fight has been waged around this rate of the tariff bill because of the use of such rags in cheaper clothing, blankets, underwear and socks.

The Senate yesterday restored the House increase on raw wool, fixing the duty at 34 cents a pound. The vote was 44 to 26, with 36 Republicans and eight Democrats supporting the increase and 21 Democrats and five Republicans opposing it.

Washington, Nov. 22—(UP)—A charge that a few special Washington newspaper correspondents "dine at the White House and are taken down into Virginia by President

Hoover so they will write articles unfavorable to the Senate and favorable to someone else," was made upon the floor yesterday by Senator

Pat Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi.

Harrison's accusation was part of a general round of charges in answer to recent attacks upon the Senate from various quarters in reference to the Independent Republican-Democratic coalition on the tariff bill.

The verbal "fireworks" started when Senator Sackett, Repn., Ky., put into the record an editorial from the Washington Post which, Harrison said, "heaped abuse" upon the Senate.

The debate culminated in a personal attack upon the publisher of the newspaper, Edward B. McLean,

by Senator Norris, Repn., Neb., who asserted McLean had "from the cradle led a life of dishonor."

Likened To Arnold.

Norris sought to liken McLean to the revolutionary war traitor, Benedict Arnold, because of the publisher's activities during the Teapot

Dome oil scandals.

Harrison first turned his attack upon Sackett who hurriedly explained

he had intended to criticize the Post

Editorial and did not endorse its statements against the Senate.

Harrison said he would apologize to Sackett but Senator Hiram Johnson, Repn., Calif., read the stenographer's notes to show that Sackett had submitted the editorial for insertion in the Congressional record

"without comment."

Harrison then contended there is a wide spread political propaganda campaign to discredit the Senate before the people. He said the correspondents who accompanied the President to his lodge in Virginia

"are creating propaganda as well organized as Grundy's." He referred to Joseph R. Grundy, head of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association.

"They are trying to put the President in a favorable light and tear down the work of this body," he said.

Attacked Babson

"The articles of Rodger Babson,

the financial writer, are part of the scheme. He has made more mistakes in prophecy than any man who ever propheesied. He runs an investment service and his clients have lost money. They are blaming him and he is trying to blame the Senate."

Harrison denied the Democrats had played politics at the special session. "We have been more conservative than ever in the history of the party," he said.

Norris said the source of the Post editorial should be considered by the Senate. He accused McLean of lying to the Senate Teapot Dome investigating committee, in a letter saying he was the man who gave $100,000 to former secretary of the Interior

Fall in connection with the Elks

Hills oil leases, whereas the money was paid by E. L. Doheny, whose leases have been invalidated because of the transaction.

"McLean tried to shield a man who robbed his country," Norris declared.

"The amount involved was twice that which Benedict Arnold received. He never admitted the untruth until he threatened to put him under oath. He showed his heart was corrupt and the only thing that made him tell that he did not give the money was the prospect of a year in jail for perjury."

SCARBORO NEWS

Scarboro—Mrs. Grace Wigginton

and Mrs. Delos Durham were entertained at dinner at the parsonage on Wednesday.

Miss Laura Noe of Marengo spent last week in this community assisting with household duties.

Miss Catherine Roseman had the sad misfortune of being severely burned with hot lard last Thursday when a pan full of boiling lard turned over on her person. She had just finished the task of making doughnuts for the Scarboro bazaar and while in the act of removing the kettle from the stove had the accident. Home remedies were applied and Dr. Shank of Lee was called. Her suffering was intense and the physician was compelled to give her something to ease her suffering.

As we go to press we are happy to report that her condition is quite satisfactory and hopes for a speedy recovery are entertained. Catherine's many friends sympathize with her and are anxious for her recovery.

The Scarboro Bazaar and supper was a big success. Nearly 200 persons enjoyed a bountiful supper and expressed their appreciation for the royal spread. A handsome sum was realized by the women of the church in their venture.

Those who contributed to the aprons will likewise be interested to know the result of the venture. The apron circulated around Rochelle realized the sum of $53 or an average of 25 cents per pocket, there being 217 pockets on the apron.

The competitor was an apron of 92 pockets, containing $39 or an average of 43 cents per pocket. Both teams are to be congratulated on the success achieved.

Mrs. Delos Durham wishes to thank her many friends in and around Rochelle, also Scarboro and community for the gifts they contributed toward the apron and also for the splendid reception she received while making her appeal.

Mrs. Grace Wigginton entertained

company from Mendota and Chicago on Friday.

On Saturday Ernie Lewes and Edmund Grimes motored to Indiana

where they attended a football game.

On their return trip they were accompanied by Glenn Griggs who will spend a two weeks vacation with his parents.

Saturday morning Mrs. J. B.

Cave and sons James and Paul motored to Aurora where they spent

Saturday and Sunday at the Clyde

Edwards home. They returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Modest Henry, daughter of Mrs. Grace Wigginton was home over

Sunday with her mother. She returned to Aurora Monday morning to resume her duties at the Y. M. C.

Miss Ida Durin and Miss Laura

Moe, accompanied by Joe Helgen

motored to Marengo Sunday morning and spent the day at the Geo.

Noe home. While there they attended services at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. and Mrs. Kasch and daughter

Lola motored to Paw Paw Saturday afternoon.

Word was received Monday morning that Rev. J. J. Lintner, a former pastor of the Scarboro church passed out of this life and funeral services were conducted from his home church at Mendota Tuesday afternoon. Further mention will be made in the next issue.

You still have time to contribute to the Deaconess Hospital. Bring your gifts next Sunday to the church.

Gifts are to be in the form of canned goods, breakfast foods, tea, coffee, rice, dried fruits, etc. Please omit glass containers as they will not be returned.

IT'S A PLEASANT DUTY TO PRAISE FAMOUS KONJOLA

Lady Tells How New Medicine Ended Three Years of Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble.

MRS. SARAH EDWARDS

"For three years I suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble," said Mrs. Sarah Edwards, 107½ East Harvard street, Champaign, Ill. The intense misery after each meal took all desire for food. Gas formed in such large quantities that my heart palpitated wildly and I became short of breath. Rheumatism attacked me in my back and was hardly bearable. Constipation made matters great deal worse.

"Konjola was recommended to me and I decided to give it a trial. With each dose a wonderful change seemed to take place throughout my system. My organs were regulated and strengthened. The rheumatic pains became less severe; then my stomach started digesting the food better. By the time I completed the fourth bottle I was free of all my former miseries. It is a pleasant duty to praise Konjola, and I recommend it to everyone who is suffering from it."

Konjola is sold in Dixon, Ill., at Ford Hopkins' drug store, 123 West Street, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. Adv.

Thousands Drawn to Grave of Priest by "Miracle Cures"

Thousands thronged Holy Cross Cemetery at Malden, Mass., as reports of modern-day miracles brought pilgrims from all parts of the country to the grave of the Rev. Patrick J. Powers in quest of cures. Above you see part of the crowd gathered about the 60-year-old tomb of the young priest while invalids came in wheelchairs, on crutches and on stretchers to be healed. Little Eugene Reynolds, lower left, had worn braces for two years, but he's pictured, lower left, walking without their aid after a visit to the shrine. "Look mother, see the things!" cried 13-year-old Catherine Cronin, shown lower right, with her parents, at the grave—and those were the first coherent words she was said to have uttered in several years.

LaSalle — Chamber of Commerce telegraphs Illinois Petroleum Marketers' Association asking that it withdraw litigation intended to block the state gasoline tax law so that building of roads may continue unhindered.

Pooria — Any person who buys liquor or who knows anyone with liquor for beverage purposes is a felon, unless he tells government officers, Judge Louis Fitzhenry holds in an opinion, basing his decision on the Jones law, which makes a felon of a bootlegger, and on a law of 1790 which makes a felon of a person who knows of a felony and does not report it.

Chicago — Railroad men must be prepared to accept as inevitable a "diminishing rate of freight traffic growth and actually declining amount of passenger travel," Lawrence A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central System, tells Railway Business Association.

Chicago — Creation of a national park for the upper Mississippi Valley in the area from Savannah, Ill., and Bellevue, Iowa, to Rewing, Minn., and Maidenrock, Wis., is urged before the Conservation Council of Illinois by Walter H. Beall, president of the Northeastern-Iowa National Park Association.

Chicago — Airlines on the installment plan are now practical, Arthur Greene, president of the Merchants' & Manufacturers' Securities Company, announces, adding that his company has signed a contract with the Great Lakes Aircraft Corporation for financing installment sales.

Harvard and Yale no longer dominate the Eastern gridiron nor is their climax game the outstanding event of the late November gridiron drama. On the same day that they meet at Cambridge, the Pacific Coast will thrill to its own "big game" between Stanford and California, with a championship at stake, and a week later the Army and Notre Dame put on the biggest eastern football spectacle of the year at the Yankee Stadium.

But so long as there are Harvard and Yale, the most ancient of all the major rivals; so long as the Crimson mingles with the Blue, there always will be the color, the glamour and the throbs associated with this classic.

Saturday's game at Harvard Stadium may be the most spectacular of any since the war between these old foes, for the Elms will match their greatest backfield star of a generation, Albie Booth, against a rugged, versatile band of Johnnies.

This will be Booth's first crack at the Crimson varsity. The mighty atom of Eli football ran wild through the Army team that tied Harvard. He helped wreck the Dartmouth eleven that spilled the Crimson all over Cambridge. On this basis Albie figures to have a field day to climax his sophomore year but he probably will find Harvard well prepared for him.

With a strong line and shifty set of backs, featuring Eliot Putnam and Barry Wood, Harvard has a passing attack that will harass and possibly upset the Blue. Yale's air defense has left something to be desired and it may be punctured by Wood's overhead fire. But before Harvard can do much of anything it will have to stop or at least check the zig-zag progress of Booth.

The Crimson crashed through a disorganized Yale squad last year to the tune of 17 to 0, the first victory for the Cambridge forces since 1922. Harvard had Yale dizzy with lateral passes that afternoon but it is seldom that any team succeeds in administering the same dose of medicine to the Blue in successive years. The Army will testify to that.

By corraling the assorted sizes and nationalities represented in the heavyweight circus, from Buenos Aires to Berlin, Madison Square Garden seems determined to put a new and recognizable champion on the throne by 1930 to take up the scepter laid down by Gene Tunney.

It may take all winter and spring to do it but the logical foreign contender will be picked from a group including Max Schmeling of Germany, Victoriano Campolo of the Argentine, Phil Scott of England and Otto Von Porat of Norway. This process will insure an international "final" for the championship, since the general assumption is that Jack Sharkey will be the American standard-bearer.

However much of an in-and-outer he may be, Sharkey to all intents and purposes is the American heavyweight champion now. He figures to be able to handle the best that any round-robin of foreign contenders can produce for the main test.

If the All-America collection was based on picturesque nicknames, it would be difficult to overlook "Powerhouse" Pomeroy of Utah, "Firpy" Greene of Yale, "Shipwreck" Kelly of Kentucky, "Catfish" Smith of Georgia, "Bronko" Nagurski of Minnesota and "Roughhouse" Riley of somewhere in the Northwest. And Octavius Tobias Uansa of Pittsburgh might be given honorable mention.

Rockne Has Seen His Team For Last Time

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 22 — (AP) — Knute Rockne probably has seen his 1929 Notre Dame football team in formal competition for the last time. The infection in Rockne's right leg, which forced him almost out of action eight weeks ago, has made its way into the left leg, and his physical cian, Dr. Robert L. Sensesch, has ordered complete rest, even though the team must face Northwestern at Evanston Saturday and Army in New York, a week hence.

Dr. Sensesch hastened to add that Rockne's condition is no cause of real alarm, but said recovery would be long delayed unless the coach gets absolute rest from now on. He said Rockne was over-fatigued last Saturday when he directed his team from a wheel chair in the Southern California game, but had improved since that time.

Dr. Sensesch described the ailment as thrombophlebitis, or the clogging of a vein by a blood-clot.

BIG TEN TO CLOSE

BY WILLIAM WEEKES

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Chicago, Nov. 22 — (AP) — Big Ten football will close one of its most sensational seasons tomorrow with three inter-league games and two contests involving teams from outside the conference.

Purdue, rated in September as just a good team, wrecked the dope and won its first Big Ten title, and will close its season against its rival, Indiana, tomorrow at Bloomington.

Indiana, defeated by Colgate, Chicago and Minnesota and tied by Ohio State, hardly ranks as equal to the job of tripping the championship Purdue eleven, but after last week's upset triumph over Northwestern, may have enough punch to make one scratch on the Bollermakers slate.

The only game involving important position in conference standings will be played at Columbus, O., where Ohio State and Illinois, tied for second place will meet. Each team has two victories, one defeat and a tie.

At Ann Arbor, Iowa will make its last stand of the season against Michigan's improved Wolverines. Losing their opening game to Ohio State, Iowa, never was any more than just in the race, but managed to ruin Minnesota's chances for a share in the title. Iowa also gave Purdue its closest battle of the season, succumbing 7 to 0 last Saturday. Michigan started poorly but got going in time to defeat Harvard and Minnesota.

Wisconsin and Minnesota will fight out their ancient rivalry at Minnesota with nothing at stake except the result of the game itself. Wisconsin never was in the battle for the title, and what Iowa started two weeks ago by dropping Minnesota, was finished last Saturday by Michigan.

The big attraction of the day will be at Evanston where Northwestern takes on Notre Dame's great eleven. The Wildcats have not beaten a Rockne team in recent seasons, but always have managed to give the Ramblers plenty of trouble. They hope to be the team that spoils Notre Dame's perfect record. A capacity crowd of 50,000 will witness the struggle.

Stagg Field at Chicago will provide the interconference game of the schedule when Chicago meets the University of Washington eleven. The Huskies have one of the biggest teams in the country, and in their last two battles fought Sanford and California to the limit, only to lose by one touchdown margins. Chicago, noted in the past for its line-crunching attacks, will depend on a wide open game, the bid to add a victory over Washington, to its triumph at Princeton, in interconference competition.

WERE THEY MORE BEAUTIFUL THEN—OR NOW?

Fay Wray Shows the Evolution of "Woman's Crowning Glory" From Covered Wagon Days Down to the Very Latest Hollywood Bob

You've heard a lot about the beauties of the "Gay Nineties" and those of the Covered Wagon era and other periods—especially about how they dressed their hair—but were they really any more beautiful than the girls of today? You can now decide for yourself, for here Fay Wray, movie actress, portrays the evolution of "woman's crowning glory" from the mid-19th century style right down to the very latest style in Hollywood bobs. Now that you've seen them, what do you say?

Capt. McEwan Quits As Oregon Coach

Eugene Ore., Nov. 22 — (UP) — No reason was given here today for the resignation of Capt. John J. McEwan as head football coach at the University of Oregon.

McEwan refused to amplify his statement that he was resigning as soon as his contract expired next year. He has made a splendid record, his team winning four conference and two non-conference games and it was understood efforts would be made to have him withdraw the resignation. He formerly was coach of the United States Military Academy.

SEEK BEST GOLF GRASS

Yorkshire, England—Golfers will benefit by an experiment being carried on by a group of business men here. They are seeking the best kind of grass for golf greens that can be obtained, and as a result of their search, grass from Oregon, Rhode Island, New Zealand, France and other countries are being tested here.

HOME TALKIES

London—Since the craze of talking movies, a machine has been perfected here which enables amateur photographers to take home "talkies." It is a cheap instrument designed especially for the home and home pocketbooks. Pictures are recorded and reproduced on a screen by the same machine.

MANDELL PUTS AZZARELLA TO SLEEP QUICKLY

Rockford Champ Won Milwaukee Fight In Second

Milwaukee, Nov. 22 (UP)—Another victory dangled safely today from the peg that holds Sammy Mandell's fighting togs and trophies.

Sammy, the lightweight champion, came to Milwaukee last night to perform for the fans who thought Joe Azzarella had a chance. But Joe had no chance and he lasted only a half of the second round.

A smooth flow of boxing gloves, as irresistible to Joe as water over a dam, broke down the Milwaukee lightweight's defense and with the second round still young, the champion sent a crashing right to the head that put Azzarella on the canvas.

The Italian rose at the count of nine, but a few seconds later a jab to the head floored him with such force that he was out for minutes.

The bout was contracted at 138 pounds so that Sammy's title was not at stake. Sammy weighed 136½ and Azzarella 137.

It was the third time that Azzarella had entered the ring against Sammy and the third time he had been defeated. Twice previously the champion had won by decision. Only a small crowd of fewer than 3,000 watched the bout.

HOW DO YOU RATE?

London—If your handwriting is legible, you've been destined to be honest and agreeable. That's the assertion of Justice Eve, according to an English magazine. It follows that poor writers are destined to be disagreeable and dishonest, but Mr. Eve has not as yet made the latter assertion.

Wealthy Sportsman May Head Stadium

Chicago, Nov. 22—(AP)—Sheldon Clark, wealthy sportsman and Vice President of the Sinclair Refining Company, today had under consideration an offer of the presidency of the Chicago Stadium Corporation; and he indicated he probably would accept.

Mr. Clark said last night a committee from the Stadium directorate had formally offered him the position vacated when P. T. (Paddy) Harmon, planner and promoter of the huge indoor sports building, resigned Tuesday. He added he had promised his answer within 24 hours, and indicated he would accept the position, but without pay.

Mr. Clark invested no money in the Stadium Corporation project but accepted a place on the Board of Directors and one share of common stock from Paddy Harmon.

It was expected that if Mr. Clark accepted the presidency, he would seek someone engaged in active promotion to serve as General Manager. Stephen J. Hannagan, who was associated with the late Tex Rickard and the Indianapolis speedway, has been prominently mentioned for this job. Nate Lewis, matchmaker under Harmon, is expected to retain that work.

SHE CAN HAVE IT

Yorkshire, England—While Maggie Freeman is the only girl in England to hold the job she does, she is welcome to the distinction. She is the only girl grave-digger in the country. She succeeded her father when he died. In addition to digging graves she acts as clerk of records, bell-ringer and general factotum.

LARGE LAUNDRY
York, England—One of the largest railway laundries in the world is being erected here. It will contain more than 14,000 square feet when finished and more than four million articles a year will be laundered here. Soiled laundry from railway hotels, restaurants, refreshment rooms, steamships and sleeping cars will be rushed here daily and rushed away clean the same day.

Polo—The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Mary's Church will have a card party at the American Legion Hall Monday evening, Nov. 25.

Miss Minnie Johnson of Chicago came Wednesday and is the guest of the Misses Gertrude and Freda Bitter.

Miss Erna Smith entertained the members of her S. S. Class of the Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Sarah Schreffler entertained the Home Missionary Society of the Evangelical church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hiteman of Forrester spent Tuesday evening with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers.

Ray Chadwick of Ashton was a business caller Wednesday.

Mrs. William Iske entertained The Helping Hand Sewing Circle at her home Thursday.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Gavin Walker Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Truman Kroh was the leader.

ROBOT POSTAL CLERK

Cologne—A local engineer has invented a robot postal clerk. When you post an unstamped letter at this clerk's counter, you drop it on a weighing machine. A device at the top registers the amount of postage required. The sender places the money in a slot and then the machine stamps the letter and puts it in a box for collection.

THANKFUL TURTLE

London—Sopa, the huge turtle in the Zoological Gardens, has C. Elliot of Stevenage to thank for his life.

She was brought here from Santiago, but she went direct to a restaurant out of Sopa, but Elliot bought her and shipped her here to the museum.

JUST ALIKE!

One is May, the other Margy—but who can tell which is the "original" and which the "copy"? As Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer stars, the famous Angus Twins have left millions perplexed. Watch for them on their present coast to coast tour over the Keith-Orpheum Circuit.

Many prominent men and women have tried in vain to answer this puzzling question. Your family, too, are certain to fail.

WHICH IS WHICH?

Has Same Flavor AS EXPENSIVE SPREAD FOR BREAD

"As much alike as we are ourselves," say these celebrated twins, puzzling over the Jelke Challenge Flavor Test. "We can't taste any difference."

For, although GOOD LUCK costs only about half as much, two spreads for bread could not resemble each other more closely. The 60-cent taste—fresh, delicious, wholesome—of GOOD LUCK defies detection. Are you profiting by this truth? If not, prove GOOD LUCK today.

Wing Slots Enable Ship to Land Almost Vertically; Reversible Propeller Acts as a Brake for Pilot

NEA

IT DOES ALMOST EVERYTHING BUT FLOAT—Here's the unique plane which J. S. McDonnell, Jr., of Milwaukee, inventor, hopes to win first place and $100,000 in the Guggenheim Foundation's safe aircraft competition at Mitchell Field, New York. Largely because of the wing slots (indicated by the arrows) it climbs sharply into the air after a short run, flies almost as slow as a blimp and lands almost vertically, stopping within 20 feet.

(A)

REVERSIBLE PROPELLER ACTS AS BRAKE—And now they have airplanes with reversible propellers, enabling the pilot to "apply the brakes" when landing, or even taxi backward on the ground. Here's a novel design that A. K. McLeod, above, exhibited at the Western Aircraft Exposition at Los Angeles. The pilot can change the pitch of the propeller blades by the chain drive shown in the picture, to accelerate or decrease speed and also to aid in many stunt flying maneuvers.

Ione Almost Stops Football Game

NEA

Ione Ord, above, of Mississippi river murder mystery fame, who is really Gloria Rouzer of New York City, created a sensation when she appeared at the Tulane-Sewanee football game in New Orleans, and almost stopped the show. Crowds stood to gaze at her as she entered with her escort, a young newspaper reporter. The girl is scheduled to be the star witness at the trial of John McGouldrick, second mate of the Steamship Creole, for the death of Jack Kraft, her traveling companion.

Saved Dime, Spends $13,000,000

Arthur Curtiss James, regarded the largest holder of railway stock in America, believes in economy. When his counsel summoned a regular taxi-cab in San Francisco, James restrained the lawyer, preferring a cab that was 10 cents cheaper. A few minutes later James was arguing before an Interstate Commerce Commerce examiner for the right to spend $13,000,000 for a line connecting the Great Northern and Western Pacific roads in which he is a heavy stockholder.

WEST BROOKLYN

WEST BROOKLYN—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gehant, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gehant, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roman Ege and Mr. and Mrs. William Gehant drove to Amboy on Sunday where they assisted in making merry at the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Stell.

Rev. Urban Halmbaer was down from Belvidere on Saturday and visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halmbaer.

It would seem that our dairymen have reversed the situation upon the Wisconsin dairymen. Instead of our men going to Wisconsin to look after the purchasing of milk cows, last week several buyers were here from that state and purchased a carload of Guernseys in this district.

Mrs. Frank L. Oester was here from Aurora Sunday and visited at the home of Fred Koehler and family.

The masquerade held at the opera house Tuesday evening was a huge success and everyone had a fine time.

Mrs. Tryon Rosbrook was here from Dixon Monday calling upon friends and acquaintances.

The farmers' elevator directors have decided upon Monday December 9 for the holding of their annual stockholders meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vermer were here Wednesday from Dixon and visited with friends and former neighbors.

C. H. Merchon and Peter Dolan were business visitors in Dixon on Monday.

Bud Halsey was here Saturday with George Dillow from Bradford. Bud is glad to get back from the west to see his many old friends and tells us that he is a very successful auctioneer along with his farming operations in the vicinity of Blunt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rabel are entertaining his brother from Watertown, South Dakota, at their home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oberhelser are here from Batavia and are spending a week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lula Long who is confined to her home with an injured ankle.

John S. Keller was here from Menasha Wednesday looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hagerman and family arrived here from Howard, South Dakota, Monday and will spend Monday two weeks visiting with friends and relatives in this locality.

Oliver L. Gehant returned home Saturday evening for Chicago where he attended the Notre Dame-Southwestern California football game.

Russel Rockwood returned to his home at Shaw's Saturday after assisting with the work at the Guffin elevator for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hulbsch motored to Malta Sunday where they visited Michael Barr who is in a critical condition with a paralytic stroke.

Charles T. Peavey returned to his home at Chicago Thursday following the completion of the annual audit at the farmers' elevator.

A number of our people motored to Lee Center, the latter part of the week where they attended the funeral of Jesse Hodges. Jesse was a rather conspicuous figure upon our streets during his residence west of town, and it was with regret that we learned of his tragic death.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Oester and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wigum were here from Aurora Sunday and spent the day visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Erbes and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Biesche.

W. A. Lough drove to Dixon on Tuesday morning where he had been called owing to the illness of his son, Ira.

Charles Guffin and Miss Ada Guffin returned home Saturday after a month's sojourn in the east where they visited with friends and relatives at their former home.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. White drove to Chicago Sunday and paid a brief visit to friends.

Carl Bessie returned home from Ladd Wednesday with a new sedan which he purchased recently.

Mrs. H. A. Bernardin returned home Monday morning from Sterling where she had spent a week visiting with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dingler.

B. J. Long left Saturday evening for a week's business trip in the west.

The funeral services of Mrs. Andrew Gehant was held at St. Mary's church here on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. The rites consisted of a solemn requiem high mass read by Father Healey, the local pastor, with Father Quinn, of Belvidere acting as deacon and Father Whitekamp of Sublette as sub-deacon.

The church proved far too small to accommodate the host of friends and relatives who had gathered to pay their last respect to the one whom they cherished so highly, as well to extend their sincere sympathy the ones left behind.

The pall bearers were chosen from the nephews and were as follows: Joseph Graf, George Gehant, Alex Jeanblanc, Oliver L. Gehant, Raymond Jeanquenet and Frank Gehant, Jr. The Christian Mothers society, of which she was a member, also marched in a body behind the casket.

The deceased was the fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jeanguenet, and was born at Portsmouth, Ohio on March 7, 1876, and remained at home with her parents until she reached the age of thirty-two. She then came to Illinois together with other relatives who were migrating from her locality. During the following two years of her abode in this vicinity she became acquainted with Andrew Gehant, a promising young man in the community, and the couple were happily wed on July 10, 1899 at St. Mary's church in West Brooklyn.

They then took up the farming operations of his parents who were upon their declining years and continued to make their home upon the family homestead. They were blessed with four children. Mrs. Leroy Lovering of Sublette, Anthony, and Carl at home and Miss Lucille, a novice at Mt. Clare Academy at Clinton, Iowa.

It was upon this farm they reared their devoted children; cared for his parents, and sheltered her father in his old age. It was here that they cultivated the friendship and esteem of their neighbors. The latch-strings of their door was always open and many were the hospitalities extended; no one in need was ever turned away and the cheery atmosphere of the home held an enchantment which is hard to describe.

But all things temporal must come to an end and so it was that this model home had to be broken. About two years ago the wife and mother became seized with a cancer and operations and medical care failed to cure. Through these two years of suffering she still maintained her jovial disposition and uttered not a single complaint, even though her friends could read upon her countenance the inward agony she was shielding.

The angel of death came at last to relieve her of her suffering on Monday morning about seven-fifteen while she was a patient at the Dixon hospital, and death came with such a suddenness that none of the members of the family were able to reach her bedside in time. But the smile which still lingered upon her face plainly depicted the peacefulness of a soul which had been called back to the Almighty, to receive His reward.

Beside the bereaved husband, the four children: two grand-children she leaves to mourn her loss, four sisters, Mrs. Mary Graf of West Brooklyn, Mrs. Bernard Sommers and Mrs. Anna Sommers of Portsmouth and Mrs. Eugene Pye of Peoria; five brothers, Henry Jeanguenet of Viola township, G. L. Jeanguenet of Dixon; Joseph Jeanguenet of Chana township; Peter Jeanguenet of La Salle and Alois Jeanguenet of Portsmouth, not to mention the numberless friends and acquaintances.
